

Quinebarge Times – Jan./Feb. 2006

HAPPY NEW YEAR!!!

Happy 2006 to all campers, staff, friends and family!! I hope that you rang in the New Year in style. Matt, Ethan and I were able to ring in the New Year at our new house that we just bought the middle of December! We're almost settled in now!

Registrations continue to come in almost daily, which is great news!! We are looking to have a number of staff back from the 2005 season as well as a lot of new, energetic counselor's to help bring some new games to the Quinebarge summer! We've been out to many different camp fairs all over New England and meeting lots of new campers and their families! We can't wait to get the summer of 2006 off to a good start with our first campfire on June 25th!!

Send us some news

E-mail or snail mail some memories from the 2005 Camp Season and we'll share them in some of the newsletters over the winter.

We're still working on some more...

"The best camp memory I have of 2005 was..."

Everyone that sends in a paragraph with their memory for our winter newsletters will be entered into a drawing for a $50 gift certificate to a store of their choice.

Send us a message to let us know what you've been up to... school, sports, vacations, etc, and we'll let everyone know we've heard from you! Send us an email or snail mail and we'll put your name in the next month's newsletter!

Andras H., '05 Creek Counselor, has just finished his Physical Education Degree in Hungary. He is looking forward to coming back to Camp Q in 2006. Elena L. '01-'05 Archery Instructor is busy with school work and hoping to be able to finish all her exams and still be able to come to camp in '06.

Nadya R., '05 Arts and Crafts and Dance Instructor is practicing all her moves and learning new ones to teach us this coming summer. Lauren V. is very excited to come back to Camp Q once again and is looking to see where she'd like to situate herself this year... will you see her at sports?... waterfront?... adventure?... you'll have to wait and see!!!

Andrea C. and Jamie E. completed their first semesters at UNH and Stonehill College, respectively. They are doing great and may stop by for a visit in 2006! "D" A. '02, '04, '05 horseback riding instructor will be studying in Australia this summer. She will be putting in many hours working toward becoming a doctor! Good luck D!

Jaro maintenance '04-05, has a job in customer satisfaction at a company in Slovakia. He thinks of camp often and misses everyone! Anne J and Dasha B. both miss camp tons and are looking to come back for another summer as AWESOME JC's!! Lena V. from the kitchen in '05 is going to be back at Camp Q helping out around camp. We're still waiting to hear from a number of our CIT's and JC's to see what they'll be up to for the summer of '06. How about you? Will you be back to Camp Quinebarge for another GREAT summer on the lake?

Demond F says he'll be back and that the best thing about camp is meeting everyone on the first day, and of course the great basketball games!! We saw Dan B. down at the camp fair at Brookline High School and said hello!
