PERSONAL BEHAVIOR CONTRACT – 2010

Thank you for choosing to attend Quinebarge. Life in Camp offers you many unique experiences as a growing person, living in our community of friends.

You form new friendships and learn to meet the challenges of independence.

You are responsible for your own actions in your words and in your deeds.

Campers and Staff will support and treat each other with genuine respect.

A Camper is responsible to do his/her part to help create a positive and enjoyable experience for yourself, your friends and fellow campers, your counselors and support staff, and all people you meet. Treat everyone with respect and courtesy!

All Campers are expected to show high standards of conduct and to accept personal responsibility and consequences for their actions.

All Campers must behave with honesty, courtesy, and consideration for others. Good manners and good conduct will be shown to all in Camp and any people you come into contact with, visitors to camp or people met in activities away from Camp.

While we are not all adults, we already know right from wrong.

Each of us can learn Common Sense to use in our interactions with others.

Most rules are based on the simplest.

The Golden Rule: Do unto others as you would have others do unto you!

Or... What you give is what you get...

We ask and expect you, the Camper, to agree with your signature as your bond that:

- 1 . A Camper follows all directions given by adult staff and follows camp rules and regulations both established before arrival at camp as well as any which may be established during the camp session.
- 2. A Camper uses Common Sense and Shows Consideration for Others at all times.
- 3. A Camper shall not be involved in any way with smoking, alcohol, drugs (other than those administered by the camp nurse or doctors), weapons, vandalism, theft, or any other behavior deemed by the Directors and Staff to be detrimental to the health, well-being, or safety of the Camper, the Quinebarge Family or the community.
- 4. Campers will use polite language at all times. Profanity will not be tolerated.
- 5. Campers will use good manners and behave politely while dining.
- 6. Campers will help around their cabins to keep things clean and tidy.
- 7. Campers will remain on camp property at all times unless escorted by Camp Staff to activities which take place away from camp or for medical emergencies requiring transportation to our physician or a clinic.

8. Campers will respect property, equipment, and facilities, in camp or on trips:
 -you will leave things in the same or better condition than it was found in
 -you will not discard trash in any but proper waste baskets/ barrels, in camp or out. Campers and Staff are expected to respect our environment at all times.
 -you are responsible for damages beyond normal, expected "wear and tear"
 -you will treat living creatures, plants, and natural formations with respect
 "Take Only Pictures – Leave Only Footprints" is a great rule for us all!
 -graphitti of any type is prohibited – your mark is your name on your plaque
9. A Camper sleeps only in his/her assigned cabin and bed each night while in camp
10. Campers may never enter any Camper Cabin other than their assigned cabin unless invited and accompanied by a staff member assigned to that cabin.
11. Boys and Girls are prohibited from visiting their separate Cabin Circles.
12. Campers will respect "Quiet Hours" from evening "Lights Out" until 7:30 AM
13. Campers will respect the Camp's list of banned electronic devices and toys.
 Permitted items remain in a Camper's cabin unless given permission to use them elsewhere.
14. Campers do NOT have or use CELL PHONES while at camp- their own or others.
 No voice, voicemail, texting or tweeting! If a Camper feels he/she must contact home outside of the mail we urge him/her to write and send to parents and friends, ask your Counselor or the Director for assistance.

Violations of camp rules, or other conduct un-becoming a member of our Camp community may result in a Camper being sent home. This is at the sole discretion of the Camp Director. The Parents or Guardian will be contacted and Parents will bear the cost and inconvenience of bringing their child home.

CAMPER CONTRACT:

I have read and I understand the Quinebarge Personal Behavior Contract.
 To the best of my ability, and with respect for all,
 I will use my common sense, follow our rules and regulations, and I will have a great time at Camp Q! Signed: _____

PARENT'S CONTRACT:

I too have read and understand the rules and regulations of Camp Quinebarge.
 I agree and state that my child has read the rules and regulations and will do his/her best to live up to the letter and spirit of our Personal Behavior Contract. I have helped my child to understand what is expected at Camp Q where needed.
 It is understood that the signature on this contract of one parent or guardian implies consent of the other parent/guardian. Signed: _____
